CHARLOTTE B. DUNHAM

Charlotte B. Dunham Born in Sheboygan, Wisconsin on October 25, 1918, Charlotte moved on to her next great adventure on April 28, 2007. Charlotte, an alumna of Northwestern University, and her late husband William J. Dunham moved to Tucson from Barrington, Illinois in 1959. They built their home in the foothills of the Catalina Mountains, with the Flying V Ranch as their neighbor. She is survived and greatly missed by her sons, Russell D. Dunham and W. John Dunham; her daughters, Wendy Y. Dunham-Thompson (son-in-law, Don Thompson) and Laura A. Dunham; her grandchildren, Russell D. Dunham, Jr. (and his wife, Diane) William H. Dunham and Catherine (and husband, Craig) Aspinwall. She absolutely adored her five great-grandchildren. Charlotte was an avid fan of the University of Arizona Wildcats' Basketball, the Chicago Cubs, NASCAR racing and a collector of fine Native American art. She also treasured the Arizona desert wildlife, as well as her horses and the Champion Great Danes and Pointers bred under the CharDun and Aerie Kennel names. The family wishes to acknowledge the loving, compassionate care that she received at the Claddagh House, from the staff. Thanks also to the caring medical staff at T.M.C. There will be no service. At their request, Charlotte's and William's ashes will be scattered near Parker Canyon, where they spent their happiest years. Charlotte would ask that donations be made in her memory to the Humane Society of Southern Arizona and/or St. Stephens Indian Mission Foundation, P.O. Box 278, St. Stephens, Wyoming 82524-9989. Arrangements by BRING'S BROADWAY CHAPEL, 6910 E. Broadway.

Published in the Tucson on 5/2/2007.
